

Call for Expression of Interest

COMPASS Responsible Innovation Consultancy and Mentoring Scheme for high-tech SMEs

COMPASS is launching a Call for Expression of Interest to offer 12 European start-ups and SMEs in the Biomedicine, Nanotechnology and Cyber Security sectors the opportunity to join the “Consultancy and Mentoring Scheme”. This initiative aims at:

- ✓ Promoting Responsible Innovation among high-tech companies and motivating them to improve their business innovation strategy accordingly;
- ✓ Supporting European SMEs over a period of 6 months to discover where their specific company stands in terms of Responsible Innovation, and what they can implement to manage their research, development and innovation activities in a responsible and inclusive manner;
- ✓ Providing companies with networking and capacity building opportunities.

COMPASS call for Expression of Interest is open from April 30th until August 31st 2018.

SUPPORT OFFERED BY COMPASS TO SELECTED CANDIDATES

COMPASS will provide selected candidates with:

1. Consultancy services to assess companies in terms of Responsible Innovation and customise COMPASS sectorial roadmaps to the business and innovation strategy of each company;
2. Mentoring services to define an Action Plan aimed at supporting each company to take concrete steps towards the implementation of Responsible Innovation into business and innovation practices
3. Networking and capacity building opportunities
4. Visibility through COMPASS and COMPASS’ partners communication channels

EXPECTED RESULTS and OUTCOMES

Selected beneficiaries need to:

- ✓ Commit to be involved in a 6 month mentoring and consultancy programme (monthly e-meetings is the minimum commitment required)
- ✓ Define a RI Action Plan
